

THE WITCH'S VESSEL

Dream & Signs Journal

A witch's pages for dreams, symbols & quiet revelations.

By Selia Calloway

thewitchsvessel.com

Between sleep & waking

Gather the dream before you begin to unravel it.

Date _____ Dream title _____

The dream as it came to me

Record the scene, a spoken phrase, a creature, or even a single flash of color.

The symbol & the feeling

Which detail held your attention, and what did it stir in you?

My witch's reflection

Consider personal correspondences, a waking-life connection, or a question to carry.

A small practice for tonight

Rest a hand over your heart. Whisper, "Let me remember what is mine to understand."
On waking, write the first fragments before reaching for your phone.

When a pattern calls

Observe with care. Let your own correspondences lead.

Date & time _____ Place _____

The moment I noticed

Describe what happened, what repeated, and what was already on your mind.

The correspondence in my practice

A color, animal, element, ancestor, season, or personal association that comes to mind.

My interpretation, held lightly

What meaning feels relevant, and what other explanation deserves room?

Close the page with intention

Choose one small response: reflect, create, offer thanks, or simply keep observing.
Return later to note what changed. Print a fresh page for each new entry.